I. INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 3-12(c), the undersigned hereby REFERS the cases listed above to District Judge Jeffrey S. White for a determination of whether they are related to Case No. 12-2392-JSW. Judge White may also wish to inquire whether ten other concurrently filed cases are related. The concurrently filed cases are identified below.

II. BACKGROUND

On May 10, 2012, Plaintiff AF Holdings LLC ("Plaintiff") filed at least thirteen complaints in the Northern District, all alleging copyright infringement by an unnamed John Doe defendant. Each case is captioned "AF Holdings LLC v. John Doe." The chart below sets forth each case's number and the presiding judge as of the date of this Referral:

	Case No.	Presiding
2	12-2392	J. White
3	12-2393	J. Breyer
4	12-2394	J. Koh
5	12-2396	J. Chen
6	12-2397	J. Illston
7	12-2403	J. Breyer
8	12-2404	J. Conti
9	12-2405	J. Conti
10	12-2408	J. Hamilton
11	12-2411	J. Hamilton
12	12-2415	J. Lloyd
13	12-2416	J. Alsup
14	12-2417	J. Koh

16 The documents filed in these cases appear to be form

17 documents, materially identical except for one or two details. For 18 example, the complaints appear to be materially identical except 19 for particulars contained in each pleading's fifth paragraph.

20 Other filings also appear to be form documents (e.g., form

21 declarations, form ex parte applications). Accordingly, unless

22 otherwise specified, citations in this referral are to docket

23 entries in Case No. 12-2404-SC, which provide representative

24 examples.

25 In each case, Plaintiff identifies itself as "a limited

26 liability company organized and existing under the laws of the

27 Federation of Saint Kitts and Nevis," and the copyright holder of 28 an adult entertainment film titled "Popular Demand" (the "Video").

ECF No. 1 ("Compl.") ¶¶ 2-3. Plaintiff always alleges that an unnamed Doe defendant illegally downloaded the Video, and allowed others to download it, using a peer-to-peer file-sharing protocol ("BitTorrent"). See generally Compl. ¶¶ 8-17; see also SBO Pictures, Inc. v. Does 1-3036, 11-4220 SC, 2011 WL 6002620, at *1 n.1 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 30, 2011) (explaining BitTorrent technology and terminology). Each complaint recites that "Defendant's actual name is unknown to Plaintiff. Instead, Defendant is known to Plaintiff only by an Internet Protocol address ('IP Address'), which is a number assigned to devices, such as computers, that are connected to the Internet." Compl. ¶ 5. The only material difference between the complaints is the IP address, and hence the identity, of the alleged defendant. Compare Case No. 12-2404-SC, ECF No. 1 ¶ 5 (IP address of 24.6.73.58) with Case No. 12-2405-SC, ECF No. 1 ¶ 5 (IP address of 107.3.130.61); see also Case No. 12-2392-JRW, ECF No. 1 ¶ 5 (IP address of 71.198.110.43).¹

At the time of this writing, Plaintiffs have filed ex parte applications for leave to take expedited discovery in the undersigned's two cases, as well as the case assigned to Judge White and most, but not all, of the similar cases filed in this District. See, e.g., ECF No. 8 ("EPA"). Each of Plaintiff's ex parte applications seek to compel discovery from the Internet Service Provider ("ISP") who, according to Plaintiff, owns the IP address identified in the complaint. E.g., id. at 1-2. As with

¹ All thirteen complaints appear to be identical but for the IP address contained in paragraph 5. Plaintiff appears to have filed a separate case for each IP address, perhaps mindful that judges in the Northern District have, in similar cases, criticized the practice of joining multiple unnamed defendants in a single action. See, e.g., SBO Pictures, 2011 WL 6002620, at *2-4.

1 the complaints, the ex parte applications appear to be identical to 2 each other but for the IP address (which matches the one in the 3 complaint). The ex parte applications also differ from each other 4 when it comes to name of the ISP from whom Plaintiff seeks 5 discovery. Notably, the eleven ex parte applications that have 6 been filed so far name only two ISPs. Nine refer to Comcast Cable
 7 Communications LLC ("Comcast"). See, e.g., Case No. 12-2404-SC,
 8 ECF No. 8 at 2. Two refer to SBC Internet Services ("SBC"). See,
 9 e.g., Case No. 12-2397-SI, ECF No. 10 at 2.²

10 Civil Local Rule 3-12(c) provides, in pertinent part, that 11 "[w]henever a Judge believes that a case pending before that Judge 12 is related to another case, the Judge may refer the case to the 13 Judge assigned to the earliest-filed case with a request that the 14 Judge assigned to the earliest-filed case consider whether the 15 cases are related." Cases are related when "[t]he actions concern 16 substantially the same parties, property, transaction or event; and 17 . . . [i]t appears likely that there will be an unduly burdensome 18 duplication of labor and expense or conflicting results if the 19 cases are conducted before different Judges." Civ. L. R. 3-12(a).

20 The undersigned believes the cases filed by Plaintiff in the 21 Northern District on or around May 10, 2012 may be related. The 22 undersigned acknowledges that the Doe defendants may be different
 23 in each case, assuming that the IP addresses represent different 24 defendants. But currently Plaintiff's efforts are directed at 25 obtaining discovery from only two ISPs, Comcast and SBC.

26
 27 ² At the time of this Referral, Plaintiff does not appear to have 28 filed an ex parte application in two of the cases pending in this District: 12-2415-HRL and 12-2417-LHK. Perhaps coincidentally, these are the only two cases assigned to judges seated in San Jose.

1 Experience suggests that most if not all of these cases will likely 2 settle very shortly after discovery is obtained from the ISPs, if 3 indeed it is. See SBO Pictures, 2011 WL 6002620, at *3-4
 4 (discussing settlement practices in this type of case). The 5 undersigned is concerned about duplication of judicial resources
 6 and the possibility of inconsistent rulings in what appear to be 7 virtually identical cases.³

8 The undersigned's review of those cases indicates that the 9 earliest-filed case is the one assigned to Judge White.

10 11 III. CONCLUSION

12 Given the apparent similarity of the complaints and claims in 13 the two cases captioned above and the case before Judge White, the 14 undersigned REFERS Case Nos. 12-2404 and 12-2405 to Judge White 15 with a request that he determine whether these three cases are 16 related. Judge White may also wish to determine whether the other 17 ten cases identified in this Referral, or any other cases, are also 18 related.
